

Collect for Today

God our redeemer, you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son: grant, that as by his death he has recalled us to life, so by his continual presence in us he may raise us to eternal joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Readings :- Isaiah 55: 1 - 11;
John 15: 9 - 17.

in the PARISH ROOM at 12 noon.

Come and enjoy the time together. Have good food in Christian Fellowship. The more the better! Bernard Gill

Church Recorders

Sunday May 20th - Presentation of two volumes, with photographs, showing the work done during the past two years by the Church Recorders to catalogue the many monuments, windows and other artefacts in our church. Jane Hedley, leader of the Leeds team and past National Chairman of Church Recorders, will present the books on behalf of the National Association of Decorative and Fine Arts Society during our 10a.m. service. She will be speaking to us about what they have been doing and she and her team of volunteers will be around after the service to share some of the stories they have uncovered so make sure you stay for coffee and cakes.

If you are baking for this please put them into the parish room prior to the service - or earlier making sure that you label them for this service.....and thanks in advance. Margaret

Christian Aid Week

Collectors are still needed to drop in and collect Christian Aid envelopes this week for many streets in Otley.
