CARE 4 CALAIS

In October Glynis and Barry Milner are travelling to Calais to volunteer with Care4Calais. If you would like to donate goods to this charity the most needed items are tents, sleeping bags, blankets and clothes. A full list of items needed is displayed both on the notice board and table at the back of the church.

Please bring donations to church on or before this Sunday 5th October.

- Care4Calais is a volunteer-run charity working with refugees in the UK, France and Belgium.

Parcevall Hall Quiet Day Friday 7 November: 10am - 4pm

Rev. Phil Moon will lead this day which will look in some depth at three separate encounters Jesus had in the gospels with different people. Then, for each encounter, those attending will be invited to spend time personally reflecting on some specific applications while enjoying the beautiful Parcevall Gardens (weather permitting!). This is independent of the SACRED course - there's no requirement for people to be following that journey. Parcevall charge £25 per head for the use of the room, the grounds, and coffee. Places are limited to a maximum of 25. To book, or for more details, contact Phil at: familyofmoon@aol.com or 07889 813030.

‘PEOPLE JESUS MET’

Parcevall Hall Quiet Day

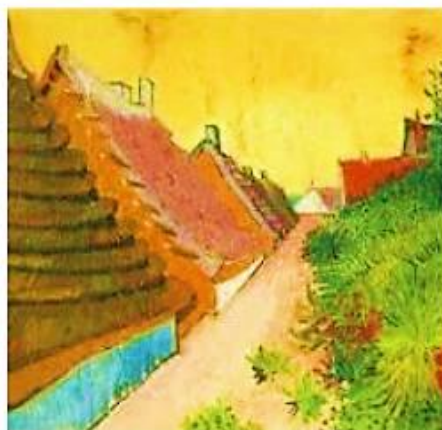

Friday 7th November

10.00 - 4.00

We explore three separate encounters Jesus had.

We look at the background to each story,
what we know about the characters involved,
and what happened when they met Jesus.

We then spend time reflecting on each encounter,
and what they might teach us in our own walks of life.
